The Hispanic Cultural Center of Midland, Inc., “A Company of Arts”

The mission of the Hispanic Cultural Center of Midland is to preserve the Hispanic culture through the education of arts, for the youth of the community. This will enhance the quality of life within the community by creating artistic educational opportunities for a child’s development and dreams, while building a child’s positive attitude toward one’s discipline, self-esteem, and pride in a multi-cultural group, thus promoting cultural proficiency. Programs with specific objectives, strategies, and outcomes will reflect the unique relationship that exists between the Hispanic Cultural Center of Midland and the children it serves.
